Dear Ray:

I am hoping that you will be able to assist our office with a matter regarding missing parking meter heads located in Hollywood. It appears that there are three (3) meter heads missing on the west side of McCadden Place between Santa Monica and Lexington. The poles are still remaining and the curb is marked loading. I am assuming perhaps Occidental Holdings (business nearby) perhaps requested the meters to be removed however the poles still remain. What is the situation at the location? I have attached several photos at the location (1117 McCadden Place, Hollywood 90038).

Let me know at your convenience.

Thank you
